

AFIADL EXAMINATION PROCEDURES

A procedure to ensure that AFIADL examination material is given to appropriately identified applicants who have properly completed the current PAWG Form 23 and are on file at PAWG HQ. The test will be administered by a PAWG approved Test Control Officer (TCO) according to regulations. Refer to CAP Form 50-4 (August 2002) for details about test administration and security.

Here are the steps to follow after the test material has been received and recorded at PAWG HQ:

Note: At the conclusion of the examination, collect and return all notes and papers the applicant may have used. The test material will be returned to AFIADL only through HQ PAWG or disposed of according to regulations.
