

2004 TRAINING INSTITUTE

NORTHEAST PENNSYLVANIA EMERGENCY RESPONSE GROUP (NEPAERG)

OCTOBER 1 – 3, 2004

AT THE
POCONO ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION CENTER

PROGRAMS OFFERED AT THE INSTITUTE INCLUDE:

Introduction to Disaster	Illegal Aliens and Terrorism	Basic Self Defense	HAZMAT Recognition	Damage and Disaster Assessment
Community CPR/AED	Outdoor Patient Evaluation	Wilderness First-Aid	Basic Terrorism Awareness	Mass Fatalities
Logistics Overview	Incident and Unified Command	Food Handling	Stress Management	Blood Borne Pathogens
Defense Against WMD	Training institute, course materials, lodging at PEEC and meals are FREE!			Aftermath of Trauma

This is a free weekend seminar for all interested persons who work in the emergency response field, such as shelter workers, health service personnel, ambulance volunteers, volunteer firemen and first responders.

Course materials, lodging at PEEC, and meals are included in the seminar.

A $25 refundable deposit is required for all participants. Deposit will be refunded at time of institute.

Spaces are limited, register today!

For More Information, Contact:

Marion Jolly
(570) 476-3800

Doug Scheirer
(570) 421-0187

Pocono Environmental Education Center
(570) 828-2319

email: peec@ptd.net ~ www.peec.org

Application Locations:

Local Red Cross Chapter
(Susquehanna, Wayne, Pike, Lackawanna, Monroe, Northampton, Lehigh, & Carbon Counties)

EMA Offices

Monroe County Safety Center